Gospel Meetings

Kottayam: Gospel meeting at Kottayam has been going for the last so many years. This year by the grace of the Lord the convention has a good start on December 1, 2008 at the Thirunakkara Maidan in Kottayam Town. It is a great occasion that we are getting a chance to lift up Jesus Christ among the unbelievers in this city. The most important feature of this year's convention is the classes based on the Book of Revelation by Dr. Koshy Mathew. He is to speak on what will happen to the world in the days to come. Many eminent men of God will lead the different sessions and give messages.

The opening message was given by Brother M M Zachariah. He spoke on the verse "For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost" Luke 19:10. He spoke on the infinite and selfless love of Christ who came down from heaven to the earth to save man kind from their sin. His love did not find shelter in words alone, but was manifested on the Calvary cross. He asked the audience to come to that love the love of Jesus Christ. The next message was given by Dr. Koshy Mathew. He based his message on the verses from 1Thess 4:16,17. He spoke about the second coming of Jesus Christ. He reminded the people that the signs of the second coming of Christ is being revealed one by one. With the appearance of the Lord in the clouds the church will be taken to Him and the door of grace will be closed. So he urged the unsaved to get into the ark of salvation before that happens. This is the sole means to escape from the eternal judgement. There is no other means other than this. He exhorted the people to accept Christ as their personal saviour and Lord.

A blessed beginning for the blessed meeting climate and weather and the surroundings were all under the control of the Almighty God. All glory to the Lord.

Ranni: The Ranni Brethren Convention which began on November 25 at the Brethren Auditorium came to a close on November 30, 2008. This convention is organised by the Brethren assemblies in and around Ranni. Though the weather was unfavourable thousands came and attended the meetings. On Sunday the first day of the week the auditorium was full to the brim with saints from all over Ranni. They came to worship the Lord in Spirit and truth and to observe the breaking of blood.

The Word of God was given by Brother Jose Mathew. He spoke from Genesis chapter 12 verses 10 onwards. He was controlled and guided by the Holy Spirit. Bethel is city of blessing. Abraham lived in a tent there and worshipped God. But when the place was stricken with famine he went down to Egypt. This shows other failure of a christian in his life. A child of God should not be a hypocrite. It is not fit for him to have double standards. This downward journey had many consequences. Abraham was forced to say that Sara is his sister not his wife to save his life. What a great tragedy. The believers too today sometimes do the same. They may deny their faith for temporal gains. What a great fall!

We should not receive any illegal gifts from anybody (V 16). Pharaoh gave Abraham many precious gifts and he received all of them without any hesitation. We do often do the same. We may be able to present many justifications for receiving such gifts from the world. When Jesus was tempted he could have asked the stone to become bread. Definitely it would have satisfied this hunger but the victory would have been for the tempter that is the Satan. The Lord wants us also to be victorious in our day to day christian life even if we are tempted.

The work of Abraham brought a bad name to the Lord (V 17) We should be blessing to our neighbour and our surroundings. We should never be a curse to them. Though Abraham wished to become a part of Egypt (Misrarim) (V 20), but she rejected him and was thrown out of it. But we see a wonderful coming back in the life of Abraham. (Gen 13:4). The fallen Abraham comes back to his God. If a child of God falls in sin, he has to repent and come back to the joy of salvation and has to worship the Lord in Bethel. We have to lead a life according to the scripture and have to worship the Lord in Spirit and truth and he called all the believers to lead a life with good testimony in this world.

Who will Bring Me a Drop of Water

George C Varghese

Once the Philistine army had encamped in the valley of Rephaim against the Israelites. Then three of the thirty captives went to David into the cave of Adullah. There David raised a question "And David longed and said Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem, that is at the gate (1Chronicles 11:15-17).

When we portion of the scripture we can see that where David was and what his condition was. He was encamped and surrounded by the enemies. Philistine army and was hiding in the Adullah cave. He was so tired and his sole desire was to get some water to drink. At that time three valiant men of his thirty captives came to him. He expressed his immediate need to them. For David Bethlehem was his home town and he knew the place and people well. But when these three heard of it they did not think anything else but set off immediately to bring water. They were aware of the risk of the whole affair, but nothing prevented them. They went through the Philistine army drew water and brought it to their leader, the King. They did it by ignoring their life. But when the water was brought to him even at the risk of their life David did not drink it. He poured it out to the

India is Our Country ...

Our country India is a fast growing and developing nation which is not much affected by the financial recession that has destroyed the base of the world economy. It may not be easy to understand about the basic reason of the well planned attack against Mumbai which is the nerve centre of all business of this fast growing nation by the terrorists. The terrorists attack of September 11 of 2001 can be considered as the most heinous and may stand next to it as far as its dimension planning and impact is considered. May be the terrorists the enemy has a desire to shatter the strong base of the unity of this great nation, India. We have to strongly doubt about it. At this critical juncture let us remember the pledge that we repeat on every assembly days and bring it into practice. "India is my country and all the Indians are my brothers and sisters ...." As the children of God let us carry out our responsibility to the nation. We do know that "..... till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it whomsoever He will". We can obey the commandment of the Most High and pray for our rulers. Let us sit in the ashes and cry for our country and shall kneel before Him for her. How many thousands are going to the eternity without God. Shall we continue to fight in the battle of evangelisation. May God bless us to go ahead in it.

Don't Pierce your Shelter

The fallen man wishes to be away from the sovereign power and presence of the Almighty God. It is because of his pride and its consequence. When Eve was a little away from her beloved husband to enjoy the freedom available to her, she utilized that freedom to think and run away from the sovereign authority of the Almighty God. The presence of the tempter and his temptations gave her a chance to dream of the immense freedom that she may get from it, trapped her in to the pit of deceit. The Lord God cursed her "He will rule you"; even then she is trying to rule him and her desire is to her husband. The consequence of her sin and pride she herself has to bear.

The running away of the Prodigal Son from the 'bondage' of his fathers sovereignty is the result of his longstanding desire and effort. Though it took a long time for him to get mentally prepared, finally he got the courage and did what he wanted.

When we turn to the history of the Jews we see that the chosen generation the Israelities several times tried to discard and dismantle the protection of the Lord by themselves and to escape from it. The climax of it can be seen in their cry, discard Him, Crucify Him Crucify Him we do not want Him. They were shouting and shrieking for His blood.

It was one of the most important turning points in the history of the Israelities when they demanded a king for them at the time of Samuel (1Sam 8). "But the thing displeased Samuel and he prayed to Lord. Then the Lord replied Samuel Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee; for they have not rejected thee they have rejected me that I should not reign on them. According to all the works which they have done since the day I brought them out of Egypt unto this day and served other gods ...."

Then when the Israelities opened their heart to the aged Samuel and told him "... Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations." This demand is repeated (1Samuel 8:5,20). The Lord God did not want the Israelities to be reckoned with the rest of the world but their demand. .... like all the nations." This was their suicidal attitude and thought. What did the Israelities did on that day? They were tearing themselves the divine umbrella of protection which was held over their head by God Himself. They felt that the human leadership of the gentiles which they did not have was better than this divine provision and protection. They felt a little bit displeased at the bondage under this divine umbrella of protection. They could not bear it. The final words of the Lord on this moment is very important and is to be taken seriously. "And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you and the Lord will not hear you in that day." "All that glitters is not gold; all Lord. He saw this water as the blood or as the life of these valiant men. "And said My God forbid it me that I should do this thing; shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy? 1Chronicles 11:19.

Dear brethren, when we study these things we should and should be able to see Jesus christ through David. Bethlehem was the city of David. Likewise the earth earth and its fullness is for Him". At that time David should have been on the throne. But he was rejected and denied of his right and took shelter in the cave of Adullah. Our Lord also had to pass through the same path. He was rejected scorned, mocked, and crucified. On the cross He cried "I thirst". If he cried then likewise, now He is enjoying for the lost souls of this earth. If He has satisfied our thirst it is our responsibility to satisfy His thirst of souls. Let our spiritual eyes open and see our Master wish to quench His thirst for souls. But who is there to go to the garrison of the enemy. We need valiant men like these three valiant men of David.

India, a secular country never everbefore had such a bad time as this type of persecutions against christians by the fundamentalists and religious fanatics. We get details of the attacks against Christians in Orissa, Karnataka and even in Kerala from our periodicals and publications. How many have been slaughtered, how many have sought shelter in the refugee camps and how many have hid themselves in the thick forests; such was the persecutions against the poor and innocent christians. But do we have to fight against gospel so furiously? What is wrong with gospel? What does it do? Does it compel people to change their religion? What harm does it do? Are the christian trying to build a christian nation? A few words to those who are against gospel the good news.

What is gospel that is being preached?

The core of this message is that God the Almighty loves humanity as a whole. The very need of every human being is love, everyone wish to love and to be loved by one or each other. This is a basic requirement of any human. So he is running far and wide to get love and to give love. We usually hear from many from both old and young. There is nobody to love me. Many with that feeling live around us. That could be one of the reasons of the increase in suicide. Man in this world is so selfish and there is no chance for love the real selfless love anywhere. People feel disgusted and they end their lives. We can present so many incidents to prove it.

But is it not a good news that God loves me and you and everyone without any limit and any selfish motives. God is love. What a great thought and what a great God is He! If a person who experienced this love and who enjoys it has to share this good news to others and if we do not do it then are we not committing a mistake? Our literate Kerala is forefront in suicidal rate and drinking. Inthis circumstance don't we have to spread this good news? If one opposes it their it is injustice to it and to the society.

Obituary Attention those who send it

Let us very politely inform the subscribers that we are not able to publish all the obituaries that we get. We prefer to publish or rather we can only publish the obituaries who were pioneers in the field of evangelisation or those who have great and remarkable work in the establishment of new local assemblies. Moreover some obituaries we get months behind. There is no meaning in publishing them. We have our limitations. So kindly bear with us and so sorry to scribble these few words about it.

Book Review

Christian Faith and Obedience

It is the tenth book of Brother James Samuel a renowned writer of the christian literature. Through the books published earlier he was able to find a place in the heart of the book lovers of the Brethren community. This book is mainly meant for those who take active part in Personal Evangelism. Many question that can come against from the various denominations and assembly groups are dealt in detail. So it will be a good thing to have one as a hand book for every one. Those who wish to get a copy may kindly contact Brother James Samuel, Thondiath House, Kallissery P O, Kerala, 689124.

News Around the World

China: Christians Detained for Sending Aid ASSIST News Service reports that officials from the Public Security Bureau and Religious Affairs Bureau (RAB) disrupted the house church meeting and forcefully detained seven of the participants during a Sunday service at Taikang County, Henan Province, on June 1. The police officials did not state the reason for the detention. Six remain in detention under a charge of sending money to a disaster area in the name of a house church. Two Christians in Hua county, Henan province were detained under the charge of religious inciting on obstruction to earthquake relief work. One was released on June 2 after paying a 500Yuan penalty and gifts worth more than 4,000Yuan value to PSB officers. Another one is said to be released on June 3.

Iran: Christians Released on Bail The authorities in Shiraz set free 21-year-old Mojtaba Hussein, charged with "activities against our holy religion," requiring a bail guarantee worth US$20,000. The same charge has been leveled against Hamoyon Shokohie Gholamzadeh, 58, another former Muslim arrested on May 11 along with three family members. But the charges against six other converts arrested with the men accuse them only of "activities against the country." Two other former Muslims arrested in a Shiraz park on May 13 remain jailed, their location and condition unknown. Another Christian convert arrested with his wife in late April elsewhere in Iran was ordered released three days ago after posting bail based on his home's worth. "This is the pattern they usually follow," said an Iranian pastor now living abroad. "They put them in jail for a few weeks, beat them, and put a lot of pressure on them to get information about the other converts."

Protesters in Germany Harass 15,000 Strong Christian Youth Festival About 450 protestors physically and verbally assaulted some of the 15,000 Christians peacefully gathered for the April 30 opening day of the Christival German youth festival. The "No Christival" protest gathered only hundreds of meters from the festival. About 100 of the self-described "antisexist alliance" protestors broke down barricades, while other No Christival members set off fireworks and chanted anti-God slogans. Attacks on Christians continued throughout the festival that concluded May 4, and Christival hosts reported that some attendees were mobbed and had beer bottles thrown at them. The Christival events are part of a series of attacks on Christians that Christianophobia.eu has recently reported. Pakistani Christian Flees Home after Blasphemy Accusation A Pakistani Christian armament factory worker has fled his home after his Muslim co-workers accused him of blasphemy. "His Muslim co-workers accused him of committing blasphemy when he asked them to stop criticizing his religion," said Nazim, a Christian resident of the area. As the word of his alleged blasphemy spread out, hundreds of Muslim factory workers gathered in the factory but Danish escaped as the managing director of the factory calmed down the charged workers, he said. Some reports suggest that blasphemy accusation was slapped on Danish after his Muslim co-workers failed to convert him to Islam. Christian parliamentarian and Chairman of All Pakistan Minorities Alliance has expressed his grave concern over registration of fake blasphemy cases.

Rescue of Girls in Nigeria Ignites Islamic Rampage

Islamists under the auspices of a paramilitary force Last week destroyed six churches to protest a police rescue of two teenage Christian girls kidnapped by Muslims in Bauchi state. Police recovered the two Christian girls, Mary Chikwodi Okoye, 15, and Uche Edward, 14, on May 12 after Muslims in Ningi kidnapped them three weeks ago in an attempt to expand Islam by marrying them to Muslim men. Following the rescue of the girls, Muslims under the Hisbah Command, a paramilitary arm of Kano state's Sharia Commission, went on a rampage on Tuesday, May 13, attacking Christians and setting fire to the churches. Joseph Abdu, pastor of the Deeper Life church, told Compass that damages to his church property amounted to about 13 million naira and that his congregation had shrunk to 40 people from the 130 who attended before the attack.

Obliged

■ More than 1.2 billion people are Muslim, and more than 800 million are Hindu. ■ 28% of the countries of the world have a minority Christian population. ■ Every day, more than 93000 people die without Christ. ■ Only 10,000 missionaries are currently working among the unreached. It is estimated that another 35000 missionaries are needed to accomplish the task.

The Urgency of the Good News

There is nothing more urgent than the proclamation of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. The eternal destiny of every soul in the universe is determined by whether he accepts or rejects Christ's sacrifice for sin on the Cross. • Each day, 350,000 people are born into the world, every one of them separated from the presence of God by sin. Each day, nearly 150,000 people—about the population of Eugene, Ore.—die, some reconciled to God through faith in Christ, others facing an eternity in hell. • It is the responsibility and privilege of each follower of Christ to share the only message that can deliver men and women from eternal death and impart eternal life. The Gospel alone is the "power of God unto salvation" (Romans 1:16). Only gospel can transform the life of man who is without God and without hope. We have to propagate that gospel. Only God can save. Let us go out and proclaim this good news to the world ... let us declared and proclaim it ... • God alone can save. We must proclaim and share. Two thousand years ago Jesus Christ was killed outside the walls of Jerusalem. Yet, today more than 40 percent of the world has yet to hear the news of the Saviours death on the cross of Calvary.

JESUS CHRIST - ABOUT GOSPEL

The New Testament records five statements Jesus made about the world evangelization after He was resurrected from the dead. In the first instance, recorded in Matthew 28:18-19 He said, "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. (You go) therefore, and teach all nations baptizing them in the name of the father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost". Jesus second statement about world evangelization is in Mark 16:15 where He said (you go) into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature". The third statement is recorded in repentance and remission of sins should be preached among all nations beginning at Jerusalem". The fourth statement is found in John 20:21 where Jesus said "As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you."

that seems to be good may not be good. Harmless things can one day become harmful. If we are going to forsake the divine leadership and protection for human administration (confederation) in fear of the persecutions of man and man's rule through illegitimate and illegal ways then we are destroying the divine umbrella over the local assemblies. We have enough knowledge of it from the past experiences in the history and the present examples of our own time. If it be the situation if we are going to trust and depend on human knowledge and counsel, then it will be definitely suicidal. As we sleep and slumber in this fort of human provision and protection the enemy will easily find its way through the other and will destroy everything. Then we will not get heavenly protection and there is no meaning expecting God's protection in such a situation. Let it not happen to us.

Let the political strategies and plans and rules go on its own way. But understand that the divine law and rule is unpaid above all rules. Let it not happen to us that we should not be afraid of men more than God the Almighty. Let this realisation of truth may not be too late. Let us not forsake and abandon this Godly protection and provision and if we do so then we are going to have the better fruit of what we sow. Donot sow wind and reap tempest and storm.

Do you able to attain what you desire?

Human life is full of desires. But not a single person is able to tell that he got everything. Desires are good. That is essential. Then only man will be able to grow and attain something in his life. Human life is a journey in search of something. During that journey, he is doing hard work to reach the place where he wants. But some people's journey ends without reaching the shore. Desires got shattered like a card house.

A rich man who lived in Texas once told like this, "I thought that I can reach at the top of the peak with the riches that I have. But now a great stupid thing happened". All needs money. But anyone who completely depends on it will be depressed. We should consider money just as one of our servant. Never should it become our master. If we allow it, then it will control us. Once a social leader in Britain said like this. "I have everything to live in this world. But the desire to live is not in me". Depression rules a man as a result of some problem in the main parts of happiness. Man is simply not a piece of flesh. Since God has given a soul into it, it becomes a lively human being. He has the desire to live together with the lord because he is having the soul in him that God gave him. Its desire is to be in peace, content and happiness. So he is indulged in different religions and doing all rituals and rites that it tells. Then also he is not getting the actual peace and happiness that he needs. Who is there who never wants to live in peace and harmony? The ultimate aim and wish of each one is that. But today it is like an oasis in the desert which is very far to reach.

A God's child who believes and trust lord whole heartedly will live in all situations very happily. This is because the God of peace is with him. Man is going to wrong places in search of peace and happiness. But whoever goes to the lord in the right way, He will give comfort and peace. When the situations are favorable, there might be false happiness around us. But when circumstances become worse, just like the ice which melts upon sun's rays, the happiness will fade. The peace and happiness that God gave us is everlasting. That will not loose. It will stay forever. That's what we should desire. Do we able to attain that?
