Those who Honour Me ...

The world enjoyed the spectacular show and athletic events held in Beijing the capital of China a few months back. The olympic is a world event. It is a great thing to partake in the Olympic. Brother William MacDonald had written about an Olympian Mr. Eric Liddle like this. Eric Liddle was selected from, his country to take part in an Olympic competition representing his nation in 100mts race. But when he reached the venue of the Olympic he found that the race was scheduled for Sunday the first day of the week when he was supposed to worship the Lord in Spirit and Truth. He informed the responsible hands that he could not take part in the race because it fell on Sunday. His country and country men were shocked. But he remained firm in his decision. He was not ready to bring shame on his Redeemer. No one could change his mind. But he expressed his willingness to take part in another event which was scheduled for a week day. It was not easy to take such a decision. One who is a runner of the 100mts is not supposed to run in 200 mts race. Finally the authorities agreed to his demand and permitted him to take part in the 200 mts race. He came first in the initial runs and finally he was in the stadium to run for the final. Some one gave a small sheet of paper with the following scribbling: "... them that honour Me, I will honour". He came first in the 200mts with a world record. I hope that he might have sung a song of gratitude at that moment. His name was written in golden letters. The people who despised him for not taking part in the 100mts took him on their shoulders and praised him for his wonderful victory. Then during the second world war he went to a nation to witness his Master. He was there as an Ambassador of peace. But he ended up as a martyr for his Lord. The Lord might have welcomed him to his side as once He received Stephen the first martyr.

I wish and wonder if Eric Liddle has been an example to those who avoids the first day of the week for journeys and for entertainment with friends for attending marriages for going to offices that can be avoid and even to take

The assembly has a great responsibility in bringing up the children in His ways. It has a responsibility to strengthen the relation between children and parents. The homes of the children and their local assemblies should become the place for their training in spiritual life. The history of the beginning of the Sunday School is very important. Sunday School was started by Bro. Robert Raikes (1736-1811). He was the editor of the daily Gloucester Journal. He noticed the numerous children who are labouring in the factories. When he visited the slum areas of the city number of questions came to his mind. He saw number of children who led a reckless life in unholiness and with out any purpose in their life. Their relationship with their parents were broken. Many of them were ending up their lives in total peril and life of hopelessness. A society with out a purpose in their life was ending up their life in tragedy. He was also encouraged in the transformation of the lives of the criminals in the jails. When he saw the youngsters he understood that prevention is better than cure. Thus he joined hands with the Anglican priest Rev Thomas Stock who was working in the village of Ashburry and started the Sunday School in 1780.

Even before this one of the methodists Mr. Hannabal started it in a small way in his home. Mr Robert Raikes brought in the necessary reforms and changes to it and made the needed books for the curriculum. He wrote the books initially. Thus Sunday School came in to being. It was not started for the spiritual growth of the children in the assemblies. It was started to bring into the ways of God the children who were wasting their life in the streets at the time of war. They came to know and learn about Jesus Christ after coming to Sunday School. We should be aware of our responsibility to bring up our children in the ways of the Lord in the assembly. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom a good understanding have all they that do His commandments, His praise endureth for ever (Psalm 111:11).

Family should give due importance to the meetings of the assembly. The family should go together to the assembly meetings. All the members of a family should be the members of the same local assembly. Members of a family should not go to different assemblies and if it happens it can create factions and divisions in the family itself. The most important thing in the world for you and me is our family and its peace after God. So to maintain that peace we have to walk with the ways of God.

One should go to a church where he can worship

Y M E F (SD) Ten Years in Karnataka

Sow in Tears then Rejoice in the Harvest

It is so gracious to stop for a moment in the long journey to give thanks to the one who has provided all strength and courage provision and protection in past ten years. Moreover journey or the travel is not ended, it is continuing in His care and grace. The Y M E F (SD) has set apart March 16, 2009 as a day of prayer and thanksgiving at Erode where the Y M E F team is presently continuing the work of the Lord. The presence of our dear Sathyananda in the prayer meeting was an added blessing. He is a brother who joined hands with the team right from the day it landed in Karnataka and still he continues to be with the team in person through prayer and financial support. He is so fervent in propagating the word that he was beaten several times. The team for Karnataka left exactly ten years before from the SBS Camp centre Puthencavu. Hundred of memories are still fresh in the mind in the long journey. By the grace and

God is a God of Order

The God whom we acquainted through the scriptures is a God of order. Right from the first book Genesis to the last book Revelation we can see this order in each and everything. Let it go the way it goes and we will see what is going to happen is not the way of God and the teaching of Scripture. But it is the nature of the natural man to refuse and discard the ways of God. The first transgression had brought disorder in the life of man.

If Abel was well versed with Godly orders and conditions Cain should not have been ignorant of it at any cost. Cain might have thought that it was not so necessary to do things likewise to please God. The path which seemed good for Cain was the path of damnation and death. Thus he became the Father of all religions of disorder.

The attitude of Korah to rise against Moses and the ego and power of Jeroboam to burn the incense and to bring in unholy fire to the temple of God are all the confirmation of the repudiation of God's order. Is it meant for them only. Would God speak only to them? Why can't we do these ministries? All these questions are risen outside the perimeter of God's order. Whenever such questions have come up against God's set programme death was the result or the consequence.

God has an order, condition and system for everything. It is the nature of man to break it. The Lord's ark is to be carried by priests on their shoulders. Any arrangement like new cart with strong oxen or any novel ideas and means reformations will not satisfy God who is a God of order. Does it should be exactly the same? Otherwise what will happen? Even if it is people like David. God will not accept. Disorders have to face its severe consequence. Even elephants will fall if they loose their steps.

The desire of our God is that everything should be done decently and in order. Even we who live in the latest age which is known as the IT age still we have to follow the order of God. Otherwise it will be dangerous. All believers know that who has to honour God where and when. If some one does not do it it is not because that they do not know it but only because a transgression a repudiation of God's will. Let your women keep silent in the churches is a commandment of God which is revealed in the scripture. It is known to all. What will happen if the woman folk give thanks to the Lord openly because anyway they are doing it are all worthless arguments, arguments for the sake of arguments. Some raise such lame excuses and create unpleasant situations. The serpent said unto the woman "Yea hath God said Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? This question which was once asked in Eden and those who repeat the same question is in the same spirit. Those people are the successors of Jeroboam who made gods and placed in Dan and Bethel. And also it was people like him who appointed ordinary people to burn incense instead of priests.

In the book of Daniel and Revelation we can see the order of God in the future too. There will be order a strict order for sounding the trumpets and for pouring the incense. We can see that the old serpent is refusing the order of Christ by bringing the seal. It is very heart-breaking that some of the believers are becoming mere puppets in the hands of the old serpent. Some people arrange camps on Sundays. Some other fix their travel and tours on Sunday, the first day of the week. Then these wise people will ask a question "What is wrong in worshipping the Lord in Camps, buses and trains or in hotels. But they are all at the initial beginning of this sickness and they will even go to the core of certain verses and ask Is it so commanded exactly the same way. Dear brothers mind that Satan the father of temptation is close by.

But those who ignore the order of God and choose and accept the disorder of Satan through their subtle ways should understand that the days are so close when we are going to stand in front of the righteous judge. Beware it and do not forget it. The Lord was crucified on the day of Passover and resurrected on the feast of first fruits, ie, the first day of the week. We should not waste any time to come back to the law and order which we have learned. For that we need little bit humility. Let us come back part in the political activities and election propoganda. What a sad state we are in. For some they have Sunday abdominal pain, Sunday toothache, Sunday cough and Sunday inconveniences. But for these people who are affected by this sunday sickness won't bar them viewing their favourite serials or sports events in the television or enjoy the sumptuous sunday meals and read their favourite news papers. By the evening they will be perfect in their health and will be back at their chair in the office the next day. Dear saints this is a contagious disease among us. There should be change. We need routine spiritual check up through self examination. Our super speciality doctor. Our God does not need to conduct another check up on us. He knows us throughly well. It is very dangerous to fall in the hands of the living God

Parents and Children

the Lord in Spirit and truth. The church of God has some basic principles and is based on the basic doctrine. If an assembly does not have the study of scripture worship meetings prayer meetings and evangelisation programmes then it cannot be called as an assembly of God. We are not expected to avoid the Bible studies and prayer meetings. The prayer meetings and fellowship of assemblies can definitely strengthen the relation among the family members. The quality of respecting and obeying the parents will nurture and develop in the children. God should have a comfortable place in our homes. We should not create any inconvenience to Him. Children should learn from the godliness of the parents. If we can handover the light of godliness to our next generation then they will be blessed and they inturn will be able to hand it over to the next generation. If the Lord tarries His coming parents will be honoured and admired. When I call to remembrance that unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grand mother Lois and thy mother Eunice and I am persuaded that in thee also (2Tim 1:5). What Paul said to Timothy is much meaningful. What is more important in the family is not the character of children manifested in homes but the character and behaviour of the parents which revealed in their homes. Parents are the role model of children. So parents should be very careful and they should be wise and sensible. Husbands and wives should understand that it is not so difficult to be good husband and wives. But it is more difficult to be good parents. The couple should understand this great reality. The life and happiness of the next generation is affected in a larger extent by the life of the parents.

When children, the gift of God is born, to a family God gives a great responsibility of the upbringing of the child the total responsibility of the care of the spirit, body and soul is handed over to the parents. When we say that we are being blessed with a child beware of the fact that God has given a great responsibility. If you ignore this great fact the next generation has to bear the consequence. So to keep the relationship of the family each and every member of the family has their responsibility. Trust in the Lord to lead a good family life.

mercy and protection that we were able to travel thus far. The wound in the heart caused because of the sudden and unexpected suspension of the Karnataka Campaign still remain fresh. A vast quantity of literature for a huge amount is stock piled in Kollegal under the care and protection of the Brethren Assembly there. If it be the will of the Lord we wish to move back to Kollegal or Raichur or Bidhar where we can conduct some follow up work.

Is Karnataka Campaign fruitful? We have occasionally seen some who mocked at this campaign and who raised their eyebrows at this programme. Later we understood that many who raised these questions were having a blurred view of evangelisation. But our total hope was on the one who commanded us to stand as his witness. Because of that the Lord has given us many fruits and by seeing it we are able to praise and give thanks to the Lord. The ministry that started for His glory and the extension of His kingdom continued until now in among many limitations. It is made possible by only because of His grace. When we desired of going to Karnataka we consulted with Brother V P Jacob and K P George and listened to their advice about the campaign in Karnataka. Both of them had worked in Karnataka for long years. We contacted the K S S S and the with their co operation started the work in Kolar where there were no assemblies of our fold. The Kolar city is merely 70Kms from Bangalore city. Initially the team stayed at Bethmangala and started the campaign. We do remember with thanks and praise the Lord for the dear brethren who took part in the first team and those who left Kerala in the initial days to take part in the campaign. The area was infested with reptiles mainly cobras, but the Lord did not allow any of it to open its mouth and thus protected the team members. But we suspended the campaign in Bethmangala because of the registration problem of the vehicle and also the scarcity of water. The team moved from there to Nelamangala one of the taluks of the rural district of Bangalore. The team was forced to buy a second hand vehicle with Karnataka registration. But the Lord enabled us to be back in Kolar after one and half years and cov

Brother ebenezer reached Kolar and started the follow up work. The Lord enabled the seed sown by the team to sprout and grow and gave a living testimony in the town itself. After a few years an assembly in Bangalore got a call from the Lord and reached Kolar and started the follow up work. An assembly came in to being. All glory to the Lord. His name. Believers and the Administration of the Assembly

This study focusses on the administered assembly according to the plan and programme of the Lord and the obedience and order of the believers. Jesus Christ told I shall build my church (Matt 16:18) and the work of the church the universal church was started on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2:47) and the building still continues. (Eph 2:20-21; 1Peter 2:5). The word build has an idea and meaning of administration and order in itself.

Administration of the Assembly. Church is the house of God (1Tim 3:15). It is the Lord who controls each and every one of the assemblies and it is done through His presence Matt18:20. His word 2Tim 3:16,17 through his perssonel Acts 20:28. Let us look to the verse Rev 1:16. He had in His right hand seven stars out of his mouth ...". We can see a number of administrations in Christendom, Episcopal, Presbyterian, Congregationalist etc. All these are according to the plan of man 1Sam 8:5. The Lord of the assemblies has gifts for the administration of the churches and we see it in Eph 4:8-11; Phip 1:1; 1Tim 3:1. We can see seven gifts there and we have to understand that they are not positions or privileges but rather ministries. 1Tim 3:1. The gifts that we seem in Ephesians 4:11 are all for the universal church. The gifts are Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Pastorsand Teachers. Out of these apostles and prophets are temporary and the others permanent.

Elders: Elders, Pastors and Bishops are the different names given to the same group. These names shows their spiritual maturity, ministry and position Acts 20:17,29; Titus 1:5,7; 1Peter 5:1,2. They are always used in plural forms. Acts 14:23; 15:6; James 5:14. Their responsibility is local and to the local assembly 1Peter 5:2; Philip 1:1; Acts 20:28.

Deacons: Their name is added immediately after the elders to show the importance of the position and also to reveal their submissiveness to the elders Philip 1:1; 1Tim 3:8-13. Their original form is revealed in Acts 6:1-7. Their main ministry is the material things of the assembly.

Deaconesses: Let us examine and study the following portions of the scripture. 1Tim 3:11; Rom 16:1; 1Tim 5:9,10. Their ministry is seen in 2Cor 14:34; 1Tim 2:11-14. Their ministry should be according to the scripture. All these persons are appointed by the Triune God Gal 1:1; Acts 20:28; 13:1,2. The Holy Spirit qualifies and appoints them. The assembly discern and understood them Acts 20:17. The qualification of those who are in the ministry: The qualities of the leaders are very much vital for the qualities of those who are being led Acts 6:3; 1Tim

Have we Gained Freedom in Christ ?

In the past hundreds of nations have gained freedom. Even today some nations are fighting for their freedom and some nations even use terrorism as a means to attain freedom. We can only see nations and people who gave big price for freedom. Freedom is the redemption from slavery. Millions have sacrificed their lives for freedom.. Liberty is so precious and freedom is so in valuable.

Once a man was taking thousands of mynas in cages in a ship from one place to another. When they started sailing, the sea was very calm and quiet. This special species of mynas used to sing beautifully. They were sleeping by hiding their heads under the wings. On the third day of their voyage the sea became violent because of the tempest. Then these birds lifted up their heads and began to sing sweetly. The sailors terrified due to the turbulent sea and the high wind. But these mynas were sing in the midst of all the unfavourable conditions. They had arisen because of the cyclone. But as we read in the Psalms even the Israelities who were captives is a strange nation were not able to sing (Psalm 137:2). We sung our harps upon the willows in the midst of it. Captivity teaches in the severity of slavery. Those who have redeemed by Christ and those who enjoy freedom if they fall back to slavery then they cannot sing. They have to repent and turn back.

But those who are purchased by the precious blood of Christ will sing to the Lord irrespectable of the place circumstance and conditions. They will sing even if they are in the den of lions or in the prison or it is midnight nothing of it makes any difference for a true child of God. That is what we see in the prison of Philippi. No one can put them to the bondage of darkness. If God is for us who can be aganist us. Those birds did not sing in the calmness of the sea. They started to sing when the waves began to rise due to the high winds and tempest. We have a God who can transform the bondage of darkness to harps on which we can play beautiful rhythm and can change bitterness to sweetness. Eventhough the birds did not have freedom they sang the songs. How much more we are precious than these birds. The freedom that we got in Christ is unique. Nothing precious can subdue that freedom. Such people will sing in the middle of the Red Sea infront of the fortress of Jericho and also on the bank of the river Jordan. We have been redeemed from the bondage of sin to the freedom of righteousness. Thanks to the Lord. So flee from sin and avoid sin. Hold unto the freedom that we have received. Do not fall into the trap of slavery again

3:1-3 all reveals the qualities of Jesus Christ in John 17. He is active and finished the work given to Him John 17:1, 4,8. Power given by the Father v.2 Love Agape v.9,11,13,24. The Leadership ministries: They are seven in numbers. 1. To feed the flock 1Peter 5:1,2. Watching and praying for the souls Heb 13:17, leading Heb 13:17 Accountable Heb 13:17. There responsibilities should out of the love of the Lord John 21:15-17. If the flock is ruled or administered with these qualities then the responsibility of those who are led can be seen Heb 13:17.

Believer or Saint: When the believers and saints gather there should be order obligation and submissiveness. We can see this order in 1Tim 2:8-15.

The order that has to be seen in life: From here we see that the church leadership is for men and also their closeness to the divine presence and when they are close to Lord they should have special qualities. They are all seen here. Every one should have these qualities. Unity faith and holiness should be mutual should be Godward and to the world. These qualities are the byproduct of the ministries. Women should exceed in good works. The order to be seen in congregation V 11-15: Men and Women in Christ are there. They are equal in priesthood but there is difference in their ministry or service. Women are barred from ruling or admonishing the assembly. 1Tim 2:11-15; 1Cor 14:34,35. Wom,an is held responsible for the fall of man 1Cor 11:2-16. These orders are indispensible for the administration of the assembly according to the will of God 1Tim 2:1-7.
